PS Job Description

Job Title	Partnership & Stakeholder Lead HMPPS in Wales
Directorate	HMPPS in Wales
Band	5

Overview of the job	The Partnership & Stakeholder Lead is responsible for the development of the systems capability to build senior stakeholder relationships between the Probation Service and partnerships. PS has a diverse range of programme and policy areas, most of which are delivered with other partners – this diversity can make it challenging for us to co-ordinate our activities and to avoid confusion. The job holder will not ‘control’ PS partnership and stakeholder activities, but will act as adviser to Deputy Directors and their Division, helping them to target their input and find the best routes through. The role is also responsible for delivering business change partner support to PS Division and Deputy Directors at a regional level as directed by the Head of Function.
Summary	The Partnership & Operational Development team will be responsible for ensuring the PS works as effectively as possible with delivery partners. The roles will include identifying and coordinating delivery to improve effectiveness of operations. In Wales these roles will go further than Probation – they will also include Prison/Probation integration.
Responsibilities, Activities & Duties	The job holder will be required to carry out the following responsibilities, activities and duties: Partnerships & stakeholder development • Provide key strategic insight, to enable ministerial briefing, on effecting change and engaging key stakeholders. • Lead PS’ work on developing a professional approach to managing networks and key stakeholders in order to provide a key delivery mechanism for the PS and its relationships with Partners. • Take an authorship and commissioning role to establishing new and effective partnerships for the PS. • Develop a relationship management approach for the PS, in line with HMPPS approaches. • Experiment with new relationship management ideas and processes across the PS. • Coordinate other Divisions’ developments related to relationship management. • Co-ordinate PS’ input into cross-Whitehall processes and systems. Implementing associated change management • Plan and design the change required to make partnerships with delivery partners as effective as possible. • Coordinate operational input to Wales projects to improve the interfaces between stakeholders and partners. Use communication effectively • Providing information, feedback and advice. • Influencing and persuading. • Using appropriate skills, styles and approaches. Enhance own performance • Manage own resources and professional development.

	Use information to take critical decisions • Liaise with staff to receive, collate and analyse information, developing systems and compiling reports as necessary. • Develop and utilise data to identify trends and take appropriate action to maintain and enhance performance. • Plan, implement and manage systems for the exchange of sensitive information, data and intelligence. Manage Diversity and Quality • Contribute to a culture and systems that promote equality and value diversity. • Implement the diversity policies of the service and collaborate effectively with the Equalities and Diversity Unit. The duties/responsibilities listed above describe the post as it is at present and is not intended to be exhaustive. The job holder is expected to accept reasonable alternations and additional tasks of a similar level that may be necessary. Significant adjustments may require re-examination under the Job Evaluation Scheme and shall be discussed in the first instance with the job holder.
Behaviours	• Managing a Quality Service • Working Together • Changing and Improving • Seeing the Bigger Picture • Leadership • Communicating and Influencing
Strengths	It is advised strengths are chosen locally, recommended 4-8.
Essential Experience	• Experience of stakeholder management. • Experience of implementing successful change projects. • Operational experience of working in a Probation setting.
